

TORRE ABBEY PRESENTS

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF

Rodney Peppé

21st November 2009 – 18th April 2010

CHILDHOOD IMAGINATION AND MEMORIES

Enter into the colourful world of childhood at Torre Abbey with the fabulously endearing toys, models, illustrations and automata made by artist Rodney Peppé.

Rodney Peppé is the author and illustrator of more than 80 children's books and the creator of TV's Huxley Pig and Angelmouse. He is the craftsman behind the working models for his picturebook illustrations and character models for his books and television programmes.

The Wonderful World of Rodney Peppé is in the Torre Abbey galleries from 21 November 2009 to 18 April 2010.

Normal Abbey admission prices apply. Free entry to the Abbey and all exhibitions for one year when you buy a season ticket or join Friends of Torre Abbey. Closed January and Mondays in February.
